Germans Plan Book Listing CIA Members

Reuters

EAST BERLIN, May 7—East Germany will publish a "Who's Who in the CIA" this month listing 3500 members of American Civil and Military intelligence agencies in 120 countries, according to an advertisement in an East German magazine.

It calls the 600-page book "a biographical reference work" on the Central Intelligence Agency.

A German edition is to be published in May and an English version in June, according to the advertisemet in the G.D.R. Review—a magazine for circulation abroad available here today.
